❖ DUTIES OF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

The Compliance Officer shall report on Insider Trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors, but not less than once in a year. He shall ensure the compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring of trades and the implementation of this code under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulation and Company’s Code of Conduct.

The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all the declarations/undertakings/forms, as mentioned in this Code, received from time to time.

❖ PRESERVATION OF “PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

- A. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- B. Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which would:
 - a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Compliance Officer under the supervision of the Board of Directors or heads of the organization shall ensure that a Structured Digital Database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information, names of such persons who have shared the UPSI along with names of person or entities, as the case may be, with whom information is shared and under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.

Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

“Need to Know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

The Company shall follow the Chinese wall procedures and processes to prevent the inappropriate or unauthorized communication of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI). The Chinese wall separates areas that have access to UPSI from those who do not have such access. The Designated employees working inside the area are prohibited from communicating any such UPSI except on need to know basis. The prior approval of the department head will be required for crossing such wall and having access to such UPSI.

Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

No insider shall trade in the equity shares of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information except as allowed under the Regulation 4(1) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

Limited Access to Confidential Information:

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password. There should be limited and restricted access to that computers, files and information.

❖ PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the dealing in securities exceeds One Lot of Equity Shares, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be as stated hereunder:

Trading by designated persons shall be subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer(s), if the value of the proposed trades is above such thresholds as the board of directors or head(s) of the organisation may stipulate.

The compliance officer shall be the authority for approving or rejecting applications for pre-clearance of trades.

A. An application shall be made in the prescribed form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.

- B. A Declaration in the prescribed form (Annexure 2) shall be made to the Company by such Designated Person specifying, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
- a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the Declaration.
 - b) That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the Declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- C. All Designated Person shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance in the prescribed form (Annexure 3), failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
- D. The Designated Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal and in case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Annexure 4).
- E. All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- F. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- G. In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned person shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days.
- H. Provided that the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.
- I. The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

❖ PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

Designated Persons, their immediate relatives and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

A. TRADING PLAN:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

B. TRADING PLAN SHALL:

- a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- c) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;
 - (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a). for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b). for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.
- d) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

Explanation:

- (i) While the parameters in sub-clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (iv) shall be optional.
- (ii) The price limit in sub-clause (iv) shall be rounded off to the nearest numeral.
- (iii) Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.

The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations. However, he shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of this plan.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

However, the trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

Further, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of insider at the time of formulation of plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-regulation 2, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

Explanation: In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in sub-regulation 4 or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.

Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.

The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.

The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval

C. TRADING WINDOW

- a) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.
- b) The trading window shall be closed for the period as determined by the compliance officer of the Company.
- c) When the trading window is closed, the Promoters/ directors/ Designated persons and their immediate relatives who have not submitted the trading plan shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period.
- d) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window (except for person who have executed trading plans) and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (b) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- e) In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading is closed.

The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

❖ GENERAL PROVISION ON DISCLOSURE OF TRADING BY INSIDERS

The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
